Local Transit

AVTA Passes:

- One-way trip
- Three-hour pass
- Full day pass
- 31-day pass

Passengers showing a valid AVTA monthly commuter pass or 10-trip punch pass may ride local transit at no additional charge.

Reduced Fare:

Passengers using reduced fare media must also show their AVTA or LACTOA photo ID card. Patrons who have a Medicare card and proper ID do not need AVTA or LACTOA photo ID's.

Passengers who show a reduced fare I.D. card with "ATTENDANT" stamped on the card will be permitted to have one person ride with them, at no charge.

EZ Pass:

Metro EZ Passes may be used on AVTA local transit during the calendar month printed on the pass. The pass will also be marked with a sticker which indicates whether the pass is a full or reduced fare pass. P indicates full fare, PS indicates reduced fare

Metrolink

AVTA accepts valid Metrolink passes on local transit, for the connecting route only.

*Children: a fare-paying adult may board up to 4 children who are 44 inches and under in height, for free.

Paratransit

Paratransit services are booked through our Dispatchers and must be paid for when you board the bus. You may pay for your trip with a pink AVTA Dial-A-Ride coupon, or with cash. You must have exact cash as our Drivers do not carry change.

AVTA Commuter Service

AVTA Passes:

Monthly commuter passes are route-specific and valid only for the calendar month printed on the pass. AVTA Commuter passes may be used on AVTA routes with a lesser pass value.

Reduced Fare:

Passengers using reduced fare media must also show their AVTA or LACTOA photo ID card. Patrons who have a Medicare card and proper ID do not need AVTA or LACTOA photo ID's.

Passengers who show a reduced fare I.D. card with "ATTENDANT" stamped on the card will be permitted to have one person ride with them, at no charge.

EZ Pass:

Metro EZ Passes are acceptable fare for AVTA commuter service ONLY if they display the appropriate zone sticker:

Route 787	9
Route 785	10
Route 786	11

The pass will also be marked with a sticker which indicates whether the pass is a full or reduced fare pass. P indicates full fare, PS indicates reduced fare.

Metrolink:

Metrolink passes are not accepted on commuter routes.

*Children up to the age of two may sit on an adults lap and ride for free. Any child who takes their own seat must pay full fare.
